HOTELS.

BEACH HOUSE,

Toledo, Ohio, Feb. 15, 1871.

This is to say that we, the undersigned, boarders of the Beach House, Toledo, Ohio, have been boarding at said house for several of the season to which it is now conducted, and the commodious rooms set forth for our comfort, and the excellent table kept by the proprietor, Mrs. Beach, in the masterly ability illustrated in getting to a meal, which, to crowds of 3 to 400 persons, is no small task, and which she performs with ease, and to the satisfaction of all. We therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Beach's House to the public as a first-class hotel, and to Mrs. Beach as a lady who will make every one welcome to her home. But, as that cannot be done, in fact, we would say that we, in traveling most as the case may be, shall always call at the Beach House when in Toledo.

First Day's Proceedings of the General Assembly.

Annual Sermon by Rev. J. Trumbull (Dubuque, D. D.).

Rev. Dr. A. H. Humphrey Elected Moderator.

[OPENING SESSION.]

The second General Assembly of the Reunited Presbyterian Church no longer convened into the Old and New Schools, but forming one grand body, commenced its sessions there, was held yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian Church, at the corner of Washington and Ashland-av., the pastor of the church, the Rev. Arthur Mitchell, pastor of the church, presiding.

At half-past 11 the services were opened by a blessing by Dr. Beh, of Cleveland, after which they was reading from the Scriptures, singing, and prayer by Rev. Dr. Hughson, of Philadelphia.

[ANNUAL SERMON.]

The annual sermon was then preached by the Rev. J. Trumbull Backus, of Schenectady, N. Y., who is at present home from the 10 h years of the pastorate of Spencerport. The text was from Ephesians, iv. 4, 5: "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." The sermon was an able one, and was listened to with the closest attention. The following is a brief abstract:

Many years ago, at Lambeth Palace Cranmer in the years of Queen Elizabeth to get up a confession of faith for the Church of England, and he called together the clergy for the purpose. On the day of assembling the bishops, the Cranmer met in the Lambeth Palace, and there was a long discussion as to the effects of the Church of England. It had no authority to call the clergy together. The Queen was the only power that could do it. The Queen was a Catholic, and would not call the clergy together. The Queen was a Catholic, and would not call the clergy together. The Queen was a Catholic, and would not call the clergy together
